COMPLEAT LIST

OF ALL THE

Common and Statute LAW BOOKS of this Realm, and some others relating there-unto, from their first Publication to Michaelmas Term 1768, giving an Account of their several Editions, anient Printers, Dates, and Price, and wherein they differ.

A New EDITION, with IMPROVEMENTS :
To which is added, A LIST of the Principal
SCOTCH LAW BOOKS, and some relating to IRELAND.

P R E F A C E.

AFTER many Months diligent Search into the Editions of the several LAW BOOKS in the Year 1731, I published Bibliotheca Legum; and therein endeavored to oblige the Public in impartially describing the various Dates and Price of every Book of Value, and taking Notice where any former Editions were deficient or varied; this being never before attempted, gave me a pleasing Hope it would be useful and acceptable; and to make it still more so, I have corrected and improved every Edition since, and also this now published, by printing the Titles of the Books more fully, and have added not only the Names of the antient Printers, viz CAXTON, WINKEN DE WORDE, LETTOU, MACKLINIA, PINSON, & al, but many Books and Dates not in any former Edition of this CATALOGUE, for some of which

P R E F A C E.

I am beholden to a most curious Work, intitled, Typographical Antiquities, published in Quarto, in the Year 1749, by JOSEPH AMES, F. R. S. &c.

Since the Publication of the last Edition of this CATALOGUE, several Law Books being become very scarce, and others out of print, have made great Alteration in the Prices; and some are so difficult to get, that no certain Price can be fixed. On the contrary, a much greater Number are lessened in their Value; in both which Cases I have made proper Corrections.

In looking often into the Law Reports, I find great Omissions in the Tables of the Names of the Cases printed and prefixed to each Book, there being scarce one Report without a Fault of this Kind, which must greatly disappoint Gentlemen when a Case is cited without naming the Page, (which often happens) and they can't find it in the Table to the Book so referred to; to remedy this great Deficiency, I fully intended to print the Names of the omitted Cases as an Addition to this CATALOGUE; but this is better supplied, and the Names of those Cases wrong spelt corrected, in a most useful and laborious Work ately published, intituled, REPERTORIUM JURIDICUM : or, An Index to all the Cases in the Year-Books, Entries, Reports, and Abridgments.

Although I published this CATALOGUE with a design to oblige Gentlemen in describing the various Editions of the Books, I have always been careful of offending my Brethren, and therefore fixed the full Price to most Books, not intending to impose on any one, but to shew their utmost Value. This I am sensible has hurt myself most, it being insinuated by some of the Trade, that they under-sell the Booksellers at Temple-bar; and when it is in their Favour, produce my CATALOGUE as a Voucher : Whereas the Booksellers near Temple-bar, being Proprietors of the Copies of great Part of the LAW BOOKS, and having more frequent Opportunities than others of buying Libraries in that Science, can afford, and do sell them, New or Old, of any Editions whatsoever, as cheap, if not cheaper, than others.

I have also made some Improvements in this Edition, and explained many Abbreviations cited for Authors Names, and as I would make this small Tract as useful as

P R E F A C E.

I am capable, shall make a few remarks, and first: The antient Statutes, Law Reports, &c. are paged only in front, and the Front and Back of the Leaf are distinguished by Letters added, viz. fol. 69, a. 69, b. and some of these Books so folioed, when reprinted, have had the two Sides put in one Folio; when that is the Case, b. begins about the Middle of the Page. Examples of this Sort are the YEAR BOOKS, PLOWDEN, COKE, BRACON, &c.

Here I would beg leave to mention, an Evil of late Years arrived to a great height. No sooner is a valuable Treatise published in England, either in History, Law, or other Science, than it is immediately reprinted in a neighbouring Nation, although it were wrote by a Peer, or one of the Judges of this Realm. This is very injurious to the Proprietors, and a great Discouragement to Authors and the Purchasers of Copies.

What I have said in my Observations on the different Editions of Books, and where-in they vary, may be depended upon; and as the Public have been so indulgent to encourage my Endeavours, I doubt not of preserving preserving their Favour by the Care I have taken in this Edition.

26 LUTWYCHE's (fir Edw.) reports and entries in the courts of common pleas, from the 34th of K. Charles II. to the 2d of Q. Anne, 2 vols. French and Latin, fol. 1704, 1l. 16s. 100.0

LUTWYCHE's reports and entries of the several cafes therein, truly stated in English. Also every citation in the report is examined by the law-books, with large observations, by Will. Nelson, esq; fol. 1718, 5s.

Altho' Mr. Nelson has thought proper to call his book Lutwyche's reports and entries, in English, with observations, &c. it is only an abridgment of them, containing about a fourth part in quantity, nor are the pages in Lutwyche taken notice of by him, or are the entries inserted: and as for his remarks, they are full of calumny.

LUTWYCHE's reports, faithfully translated into English, with an abstract of the pleadings, and references on the margin to the pages in the original, 2 vols. 8vo. 1718, 10s. 4.

This is a good translation of Lutwyche.

MARCH's (John) reports of new cafes taken in the 15th, 16th, 17th, and 18th years of King Charles I. To which is added, a table of the principal matters, and a new title, 4to. 1675, 3s. 1.1.4
